Our team provides hands-on input and advice in the development of a best-in-class investment deck, company messaging and raising your profile.

FUNDRAISING SUPPORT

We can develop and design a best-in-class investor deck, and if needed, organise time with a professional trainer to perfect the delivery. Working alongside other advisers, we can make introductions to potential investors through our network.

PROFILE RAISING

An increased public profile can be beneficial when raising money or growing your client base. We develop campaigns that land across target media read by key stakeholders to build a better understanding of the company.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS

Maintaining regular contact with existing shareholders through monthly or quarterly updates is important. We have considerable experience drawn from advising both listed and private companies of all sizes on how to structure and present these so shareholders clearly understand the company's progress.

SOCIAL MEDIA STRATEGY

Developing a strong online presence can be an important tool in building awareness of your business but can be time consuming. We create and execute content strategies that grow your following by offering news and insight, help raise the profile of the Company and the people behind it.
